A Very Happy New Year to all our readers

Conversation with the Kings

'I am the oldest person born in Willingham who is still living in the village.' So says John King, with pride. Born in 1915, he has spent the whole of his 93 years here. His wife Win, a year younger, was also born in Willingham, but before the second world war was in domestic service in Cambridge, working for the Master of Sidney Sussex College.

John was born in 'Cutter End' (now Rose and Crown Yard) and lived there until he was ten. Win was born in Rockmill End.

John attended Willingham School, in Fen End, until 1929. In that year, he went to work for the Askew family as a 'horse and cow man', and stayed until the end of the war. From the age of ten, however, he had worked, milking cows and looking after horses, to earn money, using it to buy his first bicycle when he was 11. At 18, he bought a motor bike, and, as he puts it 'I have had wheels ever since, except during the war'.

At Willingham School John became school captain, in 1928, and still has a small disc to prove it! He served as the attendance officer for the school.

Win's family lived at Iram Farm, at the end of Priest Lane, and because of the distance from the centre of

Willingham, she attended Rampton School, and had to walk there. Sometimes the track was too muddy for her to go – and when the attendance officer came to check her absence, he decided it was too muddy for him to carry out the task.

In 1926, aged ten, she moved to Willingham School, and was there until 1930. It was much bigger than Rampton (which had only 29 pupils), and, she thought, much better.

While in service, Win earned one pound a week, but had accommodation and food provided. When war came, she was of an age to be called to war work, and joined Chivers, where, though her pay was slightly higher, she was not fed or housed, and was much worse off.

In 1939 John married Irene, from St Ives. They were together for 51 years until her death in 1990. From 1976, they lived in Newington, in a house whose building John sub-contracted, doing much of the work himself.

Meanwhile, in 1946 Win married Ted Williams, who died in 1986, soon after their 40th wedding anniversary. For 29 years, from 1947, Win and Ted ran the Milkmaid, in Green Street, (now no longer a pub), first as tenants of Tolleys, then, from 1968, as owners, after buying the pub, and adding a large room to it. Win provided lunches, and was eventually feeding up to 30 customers each day.

When they retired in 1976, Win and Ted moved to Newington, to a house opposite John and Irene's. After Ted's death, she lived there alone. Then, in 1991, after Irene's death, she and John married – and John moved across the road to Win's house, where they have lived for 17 years.

As they talk, with matter-of-fact good humour, about their lives, John and Win provide great insights into how life has changed over the past 70 plus years. Like most Willingham people at the time, John did two jobs. After leaving Askews in 1945, he worked as a lorry driver for 15 years – 11 of them for the Berrycroft Stores. He also owned some land, and had two acres of fruit trees. Over the years, that work became his full-time occupation, and he gradually changed and developed what he grew. When he retired in 1980, it was mainly soft fruit and flowers, and there were no trees.

When asked what led her and Ted to take on the pub, Win replies simply: 'We wanted somewhere to live'. Did she enjoy it? Yes, most certainly: 'I liked the company. You knew everyone'. They had a group of regulars who lunched there, including a number of widowers who were glad to have lunch cooked for them. And they took lodgers, charging 7s 6d a night. One of them, Win records with a smile, came for a week – and stayed for 17 years.

John and Win speak of the changes in Willingham in their lifetime. 'It's a town now, and you couldn't know everyone', John remarks. He comments that people now have to move out of Willingham to work, which must limit the time they have for social life in the village; but as he adds: 'We didn't have the time or the money for much social life'.

That said, they have played their part in village life. Before the war, John was active in the football club. They both played bowls, and Win helped to run the over-60s club. They still attend the parish church, in which they were married ('in my case, twice' as Win remarks with a smile).

Would they like to put the clock back to re-create Willingham as it was? Their answer is 'definitely not' – reflecting their cheerful and positive approach to life.

Thank you...

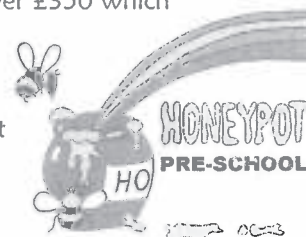

The Honeypot Preschool Committee would like to thank all the children, parents, carers and their families and friends for their help and support for our Annual Christmas Fayre which was held at the Primary School on Saturday 29 November. We would also like to thank the following local businesses for their donations of some fantastic raffle prizes:

Berrycroft Stores, Co-Op, Cooks Funeral Service, Foreman's Garage, Lee and Associates, Maison Condor, R&K Barbers, Rappaports' Delicatessen, Royal Palace Restaurant, The Three Tuns, Tesco Bar Hill, Willingham Barbers.

We also gratefully received generous donations from businesses further afield and of course we thank the School for the use of their facilities. With everyone's help and support we have been able to raise over £350 which will be put towards further developing the new Honeypot play and learning environment. Everyone had an enjoyable morning: a bit of shopping, playing games, and of course meeting Father Christmas.

Many thanks once again for all your help and support, we could not have done it without you all. See you next year!

Pastoral Letter

After the party's over...

January follows the hype and busyness of the Christmas period – the crowded shops, financial considerations, the cooking and catering, and visiting friends and family.

Christmas has come and gone for another year. Now it is January, a new year – back to the old routines, back to 'very little to look forward to'. What happens 'after the party's over'?

For many the party means having a good time, meeting friends, having plenty to eat and drink. The after effect can be unpleasant: a hangover!

But a real celebration leaves us with something good. After a wedding comes the honeymoon, then comes the challenge of sharing life together, building a good sound relationship, one which (hopefully) will stand the test of time.

When Sir Edmund Hillary climbed to the top of Mount Everest, or Roger Bannister attained the 4 minute mile, or Isambard Kingdom Brunel completed one of his great engineering projects it was not an anti-climax and the start of gloom and despondency, as some people feel in January. It was the beginning of life in the light of such achievement.

There is always another challenge ahead, another celebration on the horizon, a new relationship to explore, more kindness to demonstrate, and more love and care to give.

6 January is Epiphany, when we remember the visit of the Magi (Wise Men) to the infant Jesus. They took a long challenging journey to see Him, and presented Him with gifts fit for a King – Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh; they knelt in worship.

What was life like for them 'after the party was over'? They returned to their own country, but their lives were changed forever. Two thousand years on and they are remembered each year, their actions and gifts are still spoken about today. But their lives had been touched by the Almighty God, God incarnate, Jesus Christ; they could never be the same. A real encounter with Jesus Christ will transform us even today. There is no gloom and despondency after that kind of party!

Major Marian Lewis, The Salvation Army

A very big thankyou to all who have donated blankets for Jimmy's Night Shelter. A blanket can make all the difference to someone who has to sleep rough in very low temperatures. Jimmy's are very grateful for all the support - I have taken one car load of blankets and thick jumpers, and there is another load almost ready! If you find any more - don't hesitate to let me know! Many Thanks! Hilary Wyllie (01954 260051)

Letters to the Editor

Thank you to Willingham Scout Group, all the Leaders and their helpers, who gave up their time to organise this year's Firework Display.

It was very well run, the display was enjoyed by many, good value for money and a wonderful village event. Thank you.

Thank you also to all the villagers who sell produce at the end of their drives, whether apples and pears, flowers and plants - always seasonal and fresh.

Walking the dog on a nice day really is a pleasure when on your journey you can buy something for 50p too! Thank you.

Unfortunately on our travels around the village with our dog, we seem to 'encounter' many dog owners who think that people shouldn't be able to walk around the village without having to spend most of the time looking on the ground for fear of treading in something unpleasant! I have yet to actually see one of these mysterious humans with their dogs or any stray dogs roaming who may not be able to clear up after themselves! However they must exist, judging by the unpleasant mounds on the streets, down Pound Lane to the field and along the edge of Mill Field. I'm sure they know who they are!

Santa Attack!

Yet again the 8ft inflatable Santa at 41 High St (by the traffic lights) has been attacked. This time, within 6 hours of being switched on 7 December 2008.

Hopefully by the time you read this we have been able to fix him and he's back in place in our garden bringing a smile to people's faces, probably with a wall of rope lights around him again to keep him safe!

It's a shame that a couple of 'lads' idea of fun is to spoil things for others.

Poppy Appeal 2008

Thank you.

Message from our Police Team

Hello, I am Sergeant Paul Rogerson from the Histon Neighbourhood Police Team. I have asked the Magazine Editors from our beats to talk to you about reporting Crimes and incidents to the Police.

This is a matter that has caused some confusion in the past. In our attempts to make sure we answer your calls and allow officers to be out of the Police Station patrolling we have moved away from providing direct numbers to Police Stations. The operators who take your call can often deal with your enquiry direct, update you on a crime or incident or record your crime. They will also be able to pass your call through direct to officers at the Station or on their mobile phones. Below is a general guide to reporting.

Emergencies

Dial 999 when:

- Lives are at risk / violence / serious injury
- Serious crime is happening
- Criminal still at the scene or nearby

The police operator will need to take your name, address and details of what has happened. This will take time, but it is important to get all of the information from you so that we can send the appropriate resources to you if necessary.

Otherwise, always call:

0845 456 456 4

24 hours a day, for all non-emergency calls. - Your call will be answered by a trained operator. Please note, calls may be recorded for quality monitoring, training and evidential purposes.

General Phone Enquires

For all non-emergencies, call 24 hours a day: 0845 456 456 4

MINICOM helpline for the deaf and hard of hearing, anywhere in the force area: 01480 422493

RNID TypeTalk is a national telephone relay service which enables, deaf, deafblind, hard of hearing and speech impaired people to communicate, to access the service dial: 0800 515152

New Opening Hours for Willingham Library in the New Year

Following a review of our busiest times, and taking into account feedback from both customers and staff, the opening hours at the library will change from Monday 19 January. Overall we will be gaining half an hour's opening time.

New Library Opening Times

Monday			5pm – 7pm
Tuesday		2.30pm – 7pm
Wednesday	Closed
Thursday	10.00am – 12.30pm	2.30pm – 7pm
Friday	10.00am – 12.30pm
Saturday	10.00am – 12.30pm

Other Library News

Engage in the Afternoon – first Wednesday of the month, 2 00 - 3 30 pm

These free social occasions for adults include a speaker, tea/coffee/biscuits and an opportunity to change books, use the computers and have a chat during a library closed time.

We had a very enjoyable reminiscence session on Wednesday 3 December, which centred on Christmas past, and included decorations and books dating back to the 1930s. Pictures and advertisements from the early post-war years also prompted a lively discussion.

Upcoming meetings:

Wednesday 7 January – Your Library On-line. In contrast to December's session this is right up to date, with a demonstration of all the reference materials now available on-line at the library and from home.

Wednesday 4 February – Chris Lacey, Willingham's own poet, will be speaking and reading a selection of her work.

Willingham Primary School Class Visits

On 26 November, three classes from years 2 and 3 visited the library. Children's Librarian, Anne Worthington, told them about the library and read jokes and extracts from Horrid Henry. The visit was a great success, with 21 children joining the library.

VOLUNTEERING WITH THE CONNECTIONS BUS PROJECT

Want to get involved in a friendly and welcoming local charity?

- Want to help local communities and their young people?
- Want to help us raise funds?
- Do you have the time to support an expanding and in demand service?
- Do you like a challenge?

If so, we would love to hear from you. We are looking to diversify our funding sources and need a self-motivated, dynamic person to help co-ordinate events and other opportunities in the Cambridgeshire area.

The project is always willing to offer volunteering opportunities wherever possible so please get in touch if you are interested in supporting us in any way.

Some suggestions: Driving the bus; Writing press releases; Youth worker (experience or training would be required); Trustee.

A SENIOR CITIZEN DEFINED.

A senior citizen is one who was here before the pill, frozen foods, television, credit cards and ball point pens. For us time-sharing meant being together, not computers, and chip meant a piece of wood. Hardware meant hard ware, and software wasn't a word. Teenagers never wore slacks. We were before panty hose, drip dry clothes, dishwashers, tumble dryers and electric blankets.

We got married first and then lived together (how quaint can you be). Girls wore Peter Pan collars, and thought cleavage was some-thing butchers did.

We were before Batman, vitamin pills, disposable nappies, pizzas, instant coffee, teabags and Chinese takeaways. In our day smoking was 'fashionable'. Grass was formowing, and pot was something you cooked in. A gay person was the life and soul of a party and nothing more, while aids meant beauty lotions or help for someone in trouble.

We are to-days senior citizens, a hardy bunch, when you think how the world has changed and the adjustments we have had to make.

SHEDUCATE

The value of property in sheds and garages is more than people think. Thieves may target them for power tools, cycles and sports equipment. Hand tools stolen from sheds and garages can be used to break into homes.

Secure the access to your shed or garage by locking gates and using thorny bushes next to walls and fences

Have you visibly marked the contents of your shed? Make a note of serial numbers and photograph valuable plants, ornaments, machinery and equipment

External security lights which are activated by movement are a useful deterrent

Doors of sheds require attention. Use strong padbars and close shackle padlocks. Up-and-over garage doors supplied with standard lock fittings should also be fitted with a padlock. Windows should be secured with locks or grilles. Extra care should be taken with garages where access can be gained to the home.

Use coach bolts or non-return screws to secure door hinges and locks

Chain cycles, mowers, ladders and tools to a strong anchorage point

Alarms for sheds and garages are available for under £20 at most DIY stores, catalogue shops and builders merchants

Together we'll crack crime. Join a Neighbourhood Watch scheme

Exactly what insurance cover do you have? Check that your household policy covers you for theft from your gardens or outbuildings

The perfect combination.

For over 20 years Tylers have been successfully selling Willingham homes, establishing an enviable reputation for integrity, friendly service and professionalism.

Last year we expanded into the lettings market with the creation of a new division, Tylers Residential Lettings, based on the same core beliefs and caring policies.

This expansion unites two areas of expertise to create a service that is greater than the sum of its parts. It enables us to offer a comprehensive property service that embraces all your residential requirements and is truly second to none.

Selling? Letting? Try Tylers!
