Photo of the month

We are heading back to the late 1950s this month and here are the primary school children with the Maypole. The Maypole dance has died out in recent years but required skill and training as the children circled in different directions weaving the ribbons until the pole was covered. This one is at the back of the old school on Fen End. Those with eagle eyes might spot a young member who is now an important local councillor!

If you have stories or memories about this picture, please contact Jon Edney, 31 High Street or oldwill@oldwillingham.com

Old Willingham: May issue

Cecil Gleaves has commented on the May Old Willingham article. He believes the picture (showing girls in a parade) dates from the 1920s rather than the 1930s. He makes the point that the girls are shown walking south down Long Lane. He also points out that the greenhouses extended to Newington.

Grant applications

We had hoped to be able to announce the result of our Big Tree Plant application in this issue but to date (10 May) no word, so check on the willinghamlife website for breaking news!

The good news is that our application to the South Cambs Community Chest fund was successful and we have a grant of £800 to provide picnic area seating and a table to add to the planned developments to the Jubilee Field.

The next meeting is A Royal Garden Party on Monday 11 June in the garden at 38 High Street and will be for members only.

As there is a royal theme, please dress suitably for the occasion; there will be prizes for the most appropriate outfit and the most unusual hat! As part of the Royal theme, there will be an 'Antiques Roadshow' so bring along your Royal Memorabilia to discuss with the expert.

WI News

At our April meeting, a variety of health and beauty professionals came along and gave us a chance to sample their treatments.

- Val Parsons talked about the benefits of aloe vera gel for skin and digestive ailments
- Kim Pearson demonstrated the Bowen method – a precise, yet gentle, massage treatment for muscular pain but also giving benefits for migraine sufferers and those with digestive and menopausal problems
- Karen Dench showed us Shellac nail polish which is a gel hardened in ultraviolet light. It lasts 2 weeks and won't chip or scratch.
- Anne Thompson gave us a taster of the Dorn Method treatment which alleviates back and joint pain by massage and exercise.

It was a very enjoyable, informative and sociable evening.

INSPIRING WOMEN

OLYMPIC MATHEMATICIAN

Luke Ramsden, a Year 11 student at Cottenham Academy, received a gold certificate in this year's Senior Maths Challenge which is run by the UK Mathematics Trust and aimed at those aged 16 – 19. Over 65,000 pupils from across the UK sat the Challenge, with roughly the top 6% receiving a gold certificate.

Head, Steve Ellison presenting Luke with his certificate

The British Mathematical Olympiad (BMO) is the follow on round for the Senior Challenge. Around 1000 invitations to the BMO Round 1 are sent to pupils who score highly in the Senior Challenge each November, and are then qualified to represent the UK at the International Mathematical Olympiad (IMO).

BMO Round 1 lasts three and a half hours and contains six complex and involved mathematical problems for which full written solutions are required. Around 100 high achievers in Round One, who are qualified to represent the UK at the IMO are invited to try Round Two. Luke received a certificate of distinction in the first round and was invited to take part in Round Two. This places him amongst the top 100 or so 16 – 18 year old pupils in the country and is a spectacular achievement.

Luke will be moving on to Hills Road Sixth Form College in September, where the subjects he has chosen to study at A level include Mathematics and Further Mathematics.

HELP WILLINGHAM CELEBRATE THE OLYMPICS

A number of the local groups in the Village are hoping to take part in an Olympic-themed fun day and party on Saturday 4 August on the Jubilee Field (by the children's playgrounds).

The plan is to have a large TV in the Ploughman Hall showing the Olympics through the afternoon and evening. Meanwhile, during the day, we will run our own village games on the fields. There will be a bar available and supporting events such as a barbecue and live music but the details are still being finalised.

We are looking for local groups to organise a fun/silly game lasting 30 minutes to an hour. This could be an event which relates to the club (like a slow bike ride, bowls using melons or judo in inflatable sumo suits) or something completely different (like a 3 legged stilt race or an egg and spoon race with spade and a rugby ball). Finals could be held later in the afternoon and we would have medal ceremonies for the first 3 places.

We would like to encourage as many villagers as possible to come and take part. We are aiming to make this a free event so the more people who can give us half an hour of their time for an all-day fun day, the better!

We will be holding a Grand Summer Draw on the day of the event with some very good prizes. We hope to get a holiday, a dinner for two and some other big prizes. Money from this draw will be used to fund the day and we hope that lots of you will buy (and sell) tickets.

Our aim is to create our own fun village event, where we can all get together and chat, have a drink and have fun. If you would like to help make this a special day, especially if you or your friends

- can run a 30-60 minute game/race/event
 - are in a band or music group
 - can provide entertainment (magic, juggling, street theatre, dance, etc.)
 - have any other great ideas
- then please contact one of us.

New Youth Centre for Willingham

It's coming soon! A brand new youth centre, purpose built for the youth of our village. It may have taken a while but after the survey of the village in 2008 when 128 teenagers returned the questionnaire, the overwhelming request was for a youth centre. Following that, Willingham Action Group was set up to begin the response to the questionnaire and then Willingham Youth Trust grew out of that, becoming a charity in 2010. Since then a youth club has been running in the Baptist church hall on George Street on Wednesday evenings with two trained youth workers. Over the last eighteen months a wide range of activities has been on offer. There is an X-box 360 and a 40 inch TV, table tennis, snooker, table football, computers with a range of games, crafts and cookery. The club runs during term time and it is hoped that soon a second evening session can begin.

HELP NEEDED The dream is that the new youth centre, on the West Fen End of the Ploughman Hall, will be finished by the end of the year. It will be on two floors with a kitchen downstairs. If this is to happen help is needed. £28,000 is held by the Parish Council for the purpose of building a youth centre which has to be match funded. The plans for the work have been passed by the County Council and are now going out for tenders from local builders but we need to raise about £35,000 for the building work to be done. Can you or your business help with a donation? We also need to strengthen our team of trustees. We need someone to help with the administration and someone who could help with fundraising. We could run more youth club sessions with a bank of volunteers. Our village has no public transport to enable teenagers to access clubs anywhere else and the nearest club at Bar Hill has recently closed. If you can help to fulfil the requests and dreams of the young people of our village please contact Trevor Rowe, tel. 261193 or email revtrevrowe@hotmail.com

Neighbourhood Watch for Willingham

Neighbourhood Watch is being set up in Willingham, with the full support of the Parish Council.

Mike Tidball has agreed to be the Village Co-ordinator, and has already started to work in that role. One of his early tasks will be to recruit street co-ordinators (ideally for every road).

In Swavesey, which has had a Neighbourhood Watch scheme for three years, a number of young parents have signed up as street co-ordinators. Introducing the scheme in Swavesey has had a major influence on reducing crime rates. Given the current crime level in Willingham, there is clearly a strong case for having the scheme here.

Neighbourhood Watch works very closely with the police.

Mike Tidball writes:

'It is horrible to be a victim of crime but also horrible to live in fear of becoming a victim of crime with many of the older generation feeling particularly vulnerable. Crime rates are higher in cities, where most people are strangers to each other, because criminals can remain anonymous. Evidence suggests that offenders will avoid areas where they will be more noticed and this is the strength of a Neighbourhood Watch scheme.

Policing has changed recently so that the police now work more closely with local communities, but even more can be achieved if the communities work with the police. Our local station at Histon now has 24 hour cover of this area.

We all wish to live so that our families and property remain safe. Being involved in Neighbourhood Watch simply means being a little more observant and reporting things that seem suspicious. Members also receive regular information updates from the police.'

Your village needs you

- Do you have any spare bulbs lying around that you don't want to keep and need your? Please donate them and we can plant them around the village.
- Are you between 10 and 18 years old and interested in joining a Youth Forum to share your views and try and shape the future of Willingham?

For either of these please contact willinghamyouthtrust@gmail.com

Pastoral Letter

60 years is a long time by anyone's reckoning, but to be a reigning monarch for that long is remarkable. The country is ready to celebrate, in fact much of the rest of the world is ready to join us in celebrating. The Queen has become something of an ambassador and is welcomed in grand style wherever she goes.

There is a previous good example of a monarch who commanded general respect. King David achieved great fame 3000 years ago by being a great military leader who brought stability to the nation of Israel and extended their borders to become a great empire. A thousand years later one born of his lineage came to be king of the whole world. Jesus was not a military leader. He was not entertained by international nobility. He was not even recognised by his own people. Yet he was God's choice to bring freedom and liberty to the whole human race.

JUBILEE

In the time of the Old Testament, Jubilee was the fiftieth year. In that year all debts were cancelled and slaves were set free. It was a time that many looked forward to (except, perhaps the rich!). It was truly a time for freedom and celebration. When God sent Jesus to be the king for the whole world it was to bring about that sense of jubilee – a time for everyone to know real freedom and release from debt. This was not the financial debt that many people are in, but the debt brought about by our selfishness, dishonesty and general wrong doing. There has to be a punishment for any wrong doing if there is to be justice. Jesus was the one who took the punishment for all of us, not a normal royal privilege, so that we could be free from the punishment that would come our way eventually. Many of our nation follow the Queen with great admiration and respect. Jesus is worthy of much greater honour and respect. In celebrating the jubilee of our Queen we can also celebrate the jubilee brought in by the King of kings.

WILLINGHAM SURGERY & LONGSTANTON BRANCH SURGERY

Reception Tel: Willingham 260230 Longstanton 207600 Dispensary 260073

Out of hours cover: Urgent Care Cambridgeshire 0330 123 9131

When the surgery is closed please ring Urgent Care Cambridgeshire 0330 123 9131 or NHS Direct 0845 4647 for advice only

Bank Holidays (Spring and Diamond Jubilee) Just a reminder that our surgeries and pharmacy will be closed on Monday 4 June and Tuesday 5 June.

Cover will be provided by our local Out of Hours Service UCC on 0330 123 9131

You will be offered telephone advice and an appointment to see a doctor at the Chesterton Medical Centre or a visit if appropriate. There is free parking at the Medical Centre and all the doctors are local GPs. Our surgery receives an electronic medical report for your records so that our doctors are up to date with any medical problems you have whilst the surgery is closed. This locally organised out of hours service is used by all the Cambridgeshire GP surgeries and is the correct and best way to access medical care outside surgery hours.

NHS Direct on 0845 4647 is also useful if you just want some telephone advice.

Use of NHS Services outside surgery hours Please can we ask you not to attend the A & E Departments of our local hospitals unless you have a life threatening condition or you think you may need an X-ray. Our emergency services are over-stretched and there will undoubtedly be a long wait to see a doctor. Inappropriate use of A & E can adversely affect the ability of the service to deal with genuine emergency cases.

Pharmacy news Patients on repeat medication can benefit from a Medicines Use Review in the Pharmacy. This is a free NHS service which helps you to get the best results from your medication. If you would like more information on how and when to take your medicines for maximum therapeutic effect, please ask for an appointment at the Pharmacy, or ring 01954 261787 to arrange a time. If the pharmacy is not too busy, Neil, our pharmacist, may be able to offer this service without a pre-arranged appointment, but he may ask you to pop back at another time.

Acknowledgements We would like to extend our thanks to the families and friends who kindly made donations to the Surgery Equipment Fund in memory of both Joyce Smith and Donald Peacock.

Equipment We intend to purchase a new sigmoidoscope. We will then be able to offer a sigmoidoscopy service at both Willingham and Longstanton surgeries which means that our patients do not have to travel to hospital.

We would also like to thank Arnold and Patricia Cooper who have donated a new wheelchair to the surgery to replace the rather ageing one we currently have at Willingham Surgery to transport patients to and from the car park when needed.

ETHIOPIA BULLETIN number 4

When I return I definitely will expect you all to hand shake as they do in Ethiopia! I heard that there were worries about shaking hands at the Olympics and catching germs or something; how silly! There may be nasty diseases around the world but I have not known such rules as here for hand-washing and care over contact with hands. We have had to learn the protocol for meeting and greeting. When meeting for the first time, a firm – very firm – right hand shake is good, but hold your elbow with the left hand if showing respect while doing so. If you have just washed your hands and they are wet, or you know your hands are not clean, you offer the back of your right wrist to touch instead. If you are meeting a good friend then you touch right shoulders while shaking hands...I just love this one, it is so friendly and happy, and really good mates touch shoulders twice. Ethiopians wouldn't dream of having a drink or eating anything without washing their hands properly first - so just remember that next time you reach for the biscuit at your coffee break!

Two volunteers in the area are VSO and the others are from US Peace Corps while some pass through visiting each other so that adds to the people I see here in general. All are good company and it is relaxing being able to talk freely without being careful how I say things, or having to speak slowly. Somehow we gather once a week for an early evening meal and I meet my other Education VSO person here mid-week just to talk about schools and office grumbles and frustrations.

I tend to visit schools in the mornings and avoid leaving at the same time as they walk home for their lunch; I get followed by crowds like the Pied Piper. When one fierce Principal didn't get the full obedient response to go home without me, he saw them off with a few rocks then went to wash his hands! A typical school has a large walled, gated compound with some trees for shade and a football pitch marked out with stones and rough goal posts. Don't worry, where there are newly planted areas they are secured with lots of barbed wire. Outside the school walls are the ladies selling nuts, carrots or berries by the handful. Inside there are long huts for classrooms that can house 50 or so children – oops, all are called students here. Near the main building will be the special flag pole area. The huts have really wide roofs for shade and protection in the rainy season and on the outside walls there will be huge accurate diagrams for geography, all imaginable biology and the periodic table, painted in bright colours. Where there are younger students the words may be in English but otherwise it is all in Tigrinya. Teachers can be recognised by their white lab-coats, and they carry their chalk, board duster, text books and often their rubber tube (whip) with them – which they hide as soon as they see me. Classrooms have very narrow wooden benches that seat 2 – 3 students, a blackboard and in the younger classes hand-made posters of numbers, vocabulary and the like. In most schools about a third will be orphans from HIV/Aids families and it is where the proportion is higher there is more bad behaviour. School Principals are up against poor funding and supporting these students when they do not have much themselves. Freshly painted classrooms, exercise books, uniforms for orphans, new equipment and pens – they all use biros all the time – are usually funded by parents in their community. The Ethiopian government pays schools a tiny annual amount per student; equal to the price of a small packet of crisps in England. So when I go into schools I watch lessons and am looking to see how I can help the teachers be more creative in their lessons with what they have got and what they have to teach. I then work with Principals and area Supervisors and the teachers to encourage and help them with their lessons and teaching resources so the students learn better, which in turn hopefully will help their results and behaviour improve as well. Only I had trouble in one lesson concentrating; a noisy pigeon was feeding its young chicks in a nest in the blackboard!

The most impressive thing I see and I try to attend regularly, are the flag ceremonies. It is a sort of assembly which lasts about 20 minutes and is held half an hour before daily lessons begin at 8 00 am. All students must be in the compound lined up ready in their year groups for discussions, student readings, HIV/Aids talks and so on. I have been handed the loud hailer without warning a couple of times to address the 1,650 students eyes fixed on me, the forenji. I can't remember what I said, but once I had to repeat it all – apparently my speech was too short! Then at the end the Ethiopian flag is raised with precision timing while everyone stands to attention, properly spaced in straight lines, hand on heart, singing with great respect their national anthem. It is just tremendous and starts the day so well.

Cemetery

The long running quest for a new site to serve Willingham continues. Many sites have been identified and tested but all found unsuitable due mainly to high levels of ground water. If anyone feels that they own a suitable site and are willing to consider selling the land then please do contact the Parish Council office. We will run out of space in the existing cemetery quite soon and desperately want to be able to find a location in the village or very close to it that has easy access.

There has been a good deal of maintenance work in the cemetery with trees being trimmed and ivy removed from headstones. The excess soil will be removed shortly and re-used at the Jubilee Field. Problems with the entrances are being looked at and hopefully we can find ways to make access easier. The age and design of the current gates and pillars makes the problems not easy or cheap to solve. We are aware of a problem with a nest of bees – local experts are being consulted.

Ploughman Hall and the Pavilion

Improvements to the car parking area in front of the Ploughman Hall are imminent. Tenders have gone out for the work to provide more parking and a better surface. The conversion of part of the Ploughman Hall to house a permanent youth facility has also gone out to tender but Willingham Youth Trust are finding it hard to obtain grant support and at the moment it is not clear when this work will take place. We will keep you updated.

The kitchen in the sports pavilion has been refurbished to comply fully with food preparation regulations and to provide a better facility for users and visitors.

Tourist Centre

By the time this newsletter hits your doormat or certainly shortly after there will be a new map on the Green. It is primarily there for visitors to our village of whom we get a surprisingly large number. You do not tend to think of Willingham as a tourist centre but it has some very interesting old buildings including the parish church, some beautiful walks and some great towns and cities very close. It is possible to get to St Ives, Cambridge or Ely keeping to paths and byways with some stunning walks along the rivers. If you have not tried it then a trip on the guided bus from Longstanton Park and Ride is well worth taking. Transit time to St Ives is about ten minutes through lovely countryside.

Village Facilities

The council is committed to continually improving village amenities and, working together with Willingham Action Group, is looking to increase trees on the Jubilee Field and install additional seating and picnic areas. Other ideas include a skate/scooter park, an outdoor gym, an outdoor table tennis table, an overhaul of the under-fives play area and more adventurous equipment for the older children. It will take time and money to achieve any of these objectives. The council is working with Willingham Primary School on the ideas and would welcome input from the wider community on what they would like to see.

After the closure of the bank, building society and petrol sales a number of parishioners asked if there is more that the Parish Council can do to help retain facilities like these in the village. Sadly the answer is no. Whilst we can and do work hard with our District and County colleagues on issues like the library there is very little we can do to influence commercial business decisions. The answer is in the hands of all of us who live here. Use them or lose them. If the business is viable it will stay but if not it will go. So please do support local firms. They are a vital part of our community.

JOTTINGS FROM YOUR COUNTY COUNCILLOR

As is usual at this time of year, this month's report is a summary of the one I gave to the Annual Parish Meeting. The past twelve months have been very busy ones in this division. It started with the campaign to keep the Willingham library open. While the County Council has agreed that no libraries will shut, savings still have to be made and as a result the library opening hours have been reduced. Greater reliance will be placed on volunteers and I am very grateful that Willingham has such a strong and proactive Friends group.

Last August the guided busway finally opened – typically while I was away on holiday. It has proved highly successful, but the issue of connectivity remains very challenging. I have had a number of discussions with Stagecoach to try to see whether the Citi 5 service can be improved and they did at least consult on a new timetable. However, the proposal was a poorer service than is currently provided and not one I was able to support. Stagecoach have finally announced revised changes to take place from June. It will give an hourly service, running clockwise and anti-clockwise, so will be very confusing. The one bonus is that the new service will call into the Park and Ride in Longstanton. To try to improve local public transport, I am working with the clerks in Willingham, Over, Swavesey and Longstanton parishes, along with county officers to see whether we can develop a community transport scheme based around the Over Day Centre. It will, of course, also require the support of the Day Centre, so a solution is still some way off.

Northstowe has finally been resurrected after some three years of inactivity on the part of the developers. I sit on the Joint Development Control Committee which will determine the planning application later this year. Without wishing to prejudice my position, there are clearly many transport related issues which will need to be resolved.

On the subject of transport, I have been working hard with the Parish Council to try to solve the problems on the B1050. They fall into three areas:

How it will cope with Northstowe
The problem of heavy lorries, particularly at night
The bank

It is unfortunate that different parts of the organisation deal with these issues and trying to get them to join up and see the big picture has proved hugely difficult. Cllr Manning and I met the Executive Director, Alex Plant, who does have overall responsibility, to see whether we could agree a way forward. I remain totally committed to a bypass for the village. The meeting was far more positive than I expected. There is still a very long way to go, but I think that there is now some understanding that joining up the three issues might be the right solution.

I would like to say a word about my position with regard to allowances. The County Council, like all other authorities, is required to conduct a review of its allowances every four years. In Cambridgeshire's case, that review was already overdue and a panel was convened last summer to consider the level of allowances and make recommendations. It was a very thorough review, taking account of workload, the size of the authority and comparisons with other authorities of a similar size. It concluded that our allowances were seriously out of line. However, the panel was incorrectly constituted and its recommendations therefore invalid, so in February this year a new panel met to consider the same issue. It completed its work in just four weeks and its conclusions seemed to be based wholly on the results of a survey of residents. One of its recommendations was that councillors should be paid to attend Parish Council meetings. When the scheme was voted on, I abstained because of this recommendation, not because I don't think that members should be paid to attend Parish Council meetings (although I have to say that most of my work is done outside the monthly meetings) but because it is not possible to check that members have attended without a great deal of additional work, both for democratic services at Shire Hall, and potentially also for clerks. It leaves councillors open to accusations of fraud, which I am not happy about. It was for this reason only that I abstained, not because I did not agree with their other recommendations.

Finally, until its abolition, I remain a member of Cambridgeshire Police Authority. During the past twelve months we have been supporting the Constabulary as it seeks to make considerable savings to its budget. It has done this in two ways: first, by collaboration with Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire, which will deliver some £20m of savings over the next four years, but provide a more resilient organisation; and secondly by redesigning local policing based on District Council boundaries. It retains the commitment to local policing, at the same time as reducing the number of senior staff, of which the force had too many.

I would like to thank the chairman and all members of the Parish Council for their support during the past twelve months.

Let Them Eat Cake . . .

. . . and they did! The Cake Break held on 4 May was a great success. £433.20 was raised on the day in aid of the MS Society.

Very many thanks to all who helped, whether by baking the luscious cakes, helping on the day, or eating cake and giving a donation!

WILLINGHAM WALKERS – JUNE WALK

We will be driving to Longstanton to get the guided bus to Histon. From there we follow Gun's Lane/Rampton Drift to the outskirts of Rampton then turn South via Reynolds Drove to Longstanton and finally follow the path along the edge of the golf course back to pick the cars up. This is a new route for us and a chance to see some of the countryside before it becomes Northstowe! It is a short walk, less than five miles with some nice views. You could also choose to walk along the Busway to Histon which would make it about 7.5 miles.

Meet at the Duke of Wellington at 9 50 am prompt or at the Longstanton Park & Ride at 10 00 am to get the 10 13 am bus on Sunday 10 June 10.

MOTHERS' UNION COFFEE MORNING 7 JULY

To celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee and the Olympics a relay marathon with a difference!

The Marathon – a one year journey round the diocese where the baton will be stopping at each Mothers' Union branch for a week.

The Baton – a book of inspirations – is coming from St Ives via the guided bus, to a coffee morning in the Octagon at 10 30 am on Saturday 7 July.

Please come and join us to mark this event. All welcome.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor

In keeping with Caroline Hay's letter last month, I wonder if it is a matter of arrogance, ignorance or whatever – when people addressed snub the other person? But has it always been so?

I recall a friend who had just moved to Hemingford Grey in the 1990s. On her way to the Post Office, she murmured a 'Good Morning' to those she passed until an elderly well-dressed woman confronted her with 'Do I know you?' To which my friend replied, 'No, but where I come from we were taught to greet one another!'

Moving on – into the past – the book group I belong to is currently reading Sisters of Sinai by Janet Soskice. In the 1880s the two Scottish sisters were in Cairo, lately placed under British Rule and staying in the prestigious Sheppard's Hotel. Agnes noticed that the British were often disliked or even hated by the natives. She put it down, in part, to bad manners. She cited the instance of two English families who sat opposite them at the table d'hôte of Sheppard's. Over seven weeks, for three hours a day, 'these people faced us, and never once said good-morning, nor acknowledged our presence by a civil bow'. Of course, they had had no formal introduction, but a nod would not have been out of place, since all were in a foreign land. Instead they 'gaze on the unintroducted world with a simple stony, British stare'.

Yours

Liz Kinnear
