Independent Financial & Legal Advice

At our heart is your financial well-being

The Last Item on the Agenda?

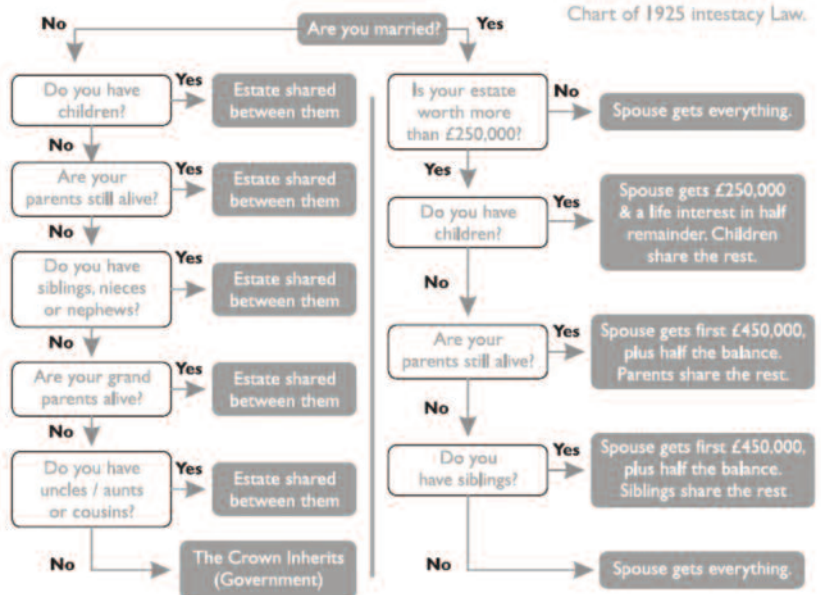

And No, it's not 'Any Other Business'.

It's writing your Will.

Without a Will the law takes over; it decides who gets what; makes the decisions for you and they might not be the decisions you were expecting. Of course, if you are living as an unmarried couple, your survivor will get nothing.

But, there is also the misunderstanding that if you leave behind a spouse and children, everything is straightforward - it's not. The chart opposite explains how it works.

If writing a Will has moved up your agenda, why not give Jenny or Stephen a call on 01954-262120 to discuss how Lee Associates can help, or email info@lee-associates.co.uk.

EDITORIAL

In a recent Community Magazine Awards event, Willingham News won the category for best photo and this entitles us to include a new logo on our front page. We continue to welcome photos, news and ideas from readers and will always endeavour to include them, subject to space, in any particular month. Please keep the photos coming and who knows, they may become our front page.

Monday, 4 August, marks the 100th anniversary of the day Britain entered one of the costliest conflicts in history – the First World War. We are acknowledging this event with the poppy on the front page and with various references throughout the magazine. The Royal British Legion is marking this day with a 'Lights Out Vigil'. See page 9. Meanwhile please note that the library will be holding a Commemoration of World War 1 on Sunday, 5 October. See page 11. Throughout this year we have been requesting that readers send in articles, memories or photos from this time so that each month we can mark this event. Do keep sending these in.

Commemoration of World War One in Willingham and Over

The Friends of Willingham Library (FOWL) will be holding an exhibition to commemorate the anniversary of World War 1, remembering the war as it affected the people of both villages. It will be held on Sunday 5 October in the Library, from 2 pm to 5 pm, and we would love you to come and visit it. We would also be grateful if anyone in Willingham has any memorabilia (photos, letters, medals etc) which they would be prepared to lend for the afternoon. (We have some promised already.)

WILLINGHAM HOUSE DURING WAR YEARS

Children at The Phoenix School always enjoy history projects about the local area in Willingham and also about the World Wars. This Autumn term we thought we would combine both to enrich their learning. We will be doing a project on the history of Willingham House, where our school is located and in particular its role during the wars. We are really excited about showcasing the work our children will produce at our Open Day on 25 October.

We would like to get the local community as involved as much as possible and are appealing for local people and historians to share their memories and/or pictures of Willingham House with us and perhaps play a part in our Open Day. We would also love the lady who told one of our staff that she got her wedding photographs taken at Willingham House to get in touch and share her story.

We have set up a website to share any memories collected – willinghamhouseinwartime.org.uk. Please contact Julie Baird by email juls732000@yahoo.co.uk or phone 01954 263113.

Phil Tomlinson

Sadly Phil Tomlinson, aged 92, died on 21 June following a stroke, just days before the 70th wedding anniversary announced in the July edition. Phil and Edna were looking forward to their celebration and Phil to his 93rd birthday in August. Those of us who knew Phil will remember him as a true gentleman who enjoyed a pint in the company of his friends and who always dispensed a very generous drink to visitors.

CAP MONEY COURSE

Willingham residents will again have the opportunity to attend this free course run by the Baptist Church on a simple, effective way of managing your finances. The last course was run over three sessions in June and proved so popular it is set to be repeated during September and October this year.

The CAP Money Course has been devised by the charity, Christians Against Poverty, which trains churches to help people learn how to set a household budget and stick to it. It challenges people to live without relying on credit cards, tackle existing financial problems and save for a stable future. It's useful for all ages from newly retired people, to soon-to-be students, families saving for a forthcoming wedding and people with loans and debts who want to get straight.

The course is run over three evenings with each session lasting 2 hours including a break with coffee/tea and delicious cakes. The next sessions will be held on the 29 September, 6 and 13 October. Please book early to reserve a place whilst there are still spaces available by contacting Debbie Jackman (01954 261195) or email capmoneywillingham@btinternet.com

WI News

Our June meeting was the summer party with lovely food and good music. It was much enjoyed by all despite having to be indoors to avoid the torrential rain!

At the party Willingham WI's Quilting Group, run by Julie Ferguson and Liz Fell, presented a beautiful patchwork quilt made by the group to Sarah Peck who accepted it on behalf of Over Day Centre. The quilt will be raffled to raise funds for the Centre.

Gardening Tips for August and September

- Don't forget to deadhead dahlias and other late summer flowers to keep them flowering.
- Water and feed pot plants regularly.
- There is still time to sow a late lettuce crop.
- Apply an autumn feed to lawns.
- Save runner beans which have grown too old to dry out in paper bags for seed next season.
- Cuttings should be taken of tender or favourite plants to preserve your stocks.
- Cut back (prune) roses which have finished flowering so that they are ready to withstand the first frosts, to promote stronger growth next season, and to shape them.

Accolade for Willingham Free Press

Back in 2006 a group of like-minded individuals decided to make use of the plethora of available apples within the village. Rather than leave them to the thrushes they decided to harvest them and send them for pressing. That initial harvest equated to some 225 bottles of juice once pressed, but by 2013, with additional contributions, that had grown to in excess of 900 bottles of juice from the gardens and orchards within the Willingham boundary.

Whilst the majority of the resultant product is drunk as pure apple juice, some drinkers have chosen to take it a stage further and produce cider from the juice for their personal consumption and enjoyment.

Following favourable comments, both with regard to the source apple juice and the resultant ciders, one member of Willingham Free Press, Graham Mumby, decided to test the waters a little further.....

The month of May saw the prestigious Cambridge Beer Festival. The East Anglian CAMRA cider group holds two competitions each year for cider production, the one for bottled cider being judged at the aforementioned Festival.

So diving in at the deep end, Graham duly submitted two examples of his cider for consideration in the categories of 'Vintage' and '2012 Harvest' Cider.

We were very pleased for Graham when it was announced that, out of around 26 entries, he had won first prize for the 'Vintage' and third prize for the '2012'.

So well done, Graham, your efforts have not been in vain, and the plaudits completely justified.

A presentation ceremony was held at The Bank where Graham received his awards from Chris Rouse of the CAMRA Cider Group.

Fen Edge Family Exodus Bike Ride

A long caravan of yellow was seen on the Guided Busway around noon on 6 July as the 65 plus Fen Edge Family Exodus riders in their 'Maillots Jaunes' made their way from Longstanton to Parker's Piece to enjoy the pre-Tour-de-France Velo Festival. The weather was perfect and the ride was incident-free (the Busway authorities will be pleased, and to them a special thanks for giving us permission to stage the ride). Everyone appeared to enjoy the travelling company, the 8.5 miles of gently changing scenery and the much merited beer at the end of the ride (other refreshments were available – in fact, Parker's Piece was buzzing). With the cost of poster printing and marshal bibs covered by a gratefully received Velo Festival Cycle Legacy grant from Cambridge County Council, the event raised over £470 for Marie Curie Cancer

Care, the official Tour De France charity. So a huge thanks to everyone from the organisers, Willingham Wheels (www.willinghamwheels.com).

Anyone moved to donate to this wonderful charity (Marie Curie, not Willingham Wheels!) can still do so online at uk.virginmoneygiving.com/FenEdgeExodus.

Language of Love

In the Book of Genesis (11.1-9) there is a story of the Tower of Babel. People overwhelmed by self-importance, decided to build the tower that would reach heaven, the dwelling place of God. They said: 'Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves; otherwise we shall be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.' They began a great work but they never finished it. The Bible says that they failed to understand each other. God confused their language, so they were not able to understand one another's speech.

This story should not be taken literally. The tower of Babel is the image of spiritual blindness, which causes us to do something exceptional that will make us famous and our name known. In ancient times many buildings were built for that simple reason. In our time, most buildings are built for practical purposes, but the desire to be better than others has not been removed. Also in our private life there is a danger of building our own tower of Babel. In general it can be anything that marks out our importance and superiority. In all these situations there is a serious danger of breaking relationships and losing contact with other people.

Those who have plenty to eat are not able to understand the one who is starving. Both can speak perfect English but they do not understand each other. One who has a great house or estate will never understand the one who is homeless. They talk the same language but they do not understand each other. A husband who fully dedicates himself to his job and has no time for his family is not able to understand his wife and children. All these situations can be defined as 'confused language.' The building of the tower of Babel has always this same negative effect and often leads to disaster in a human life.

What is the remedy for this kind of spiritual blindness? One day Mother Theresa started to work with those dying on the streets of Calcutta. Her gesture was understood by Muslims, Buddhists, Catholics, Protestants and many others, even those who do not believe in God. She had spoken to the world with the language of love. The language of love is the only language in the world that is understood by everyone.

LOOKING BACK

World War 1

The outbreak of war in 1914 cast a giant shadow over life in rural villages. Looking back, the Cambridge Independent Press of 7 May 1915 reported that a recruitment campaign was underway in most villages. The recruiting party had duly arrived at Willingham on the Saturday afternoon from Over. They marched on the Green to the music of their band and then dispersed to their billets where they were all very comfortable. However the article reported that was the highest spot in their visit as despite all their efforts, not a single recruit was obtained.

This edition also announced that a military wedding had taken place at the Parish Church on Tuesday 27 April. The bridegroom was Sergeant Frank Smith of the 11th Service Battalion, Suffolk Regiment, youngest son of Mr and Mrs Joseph Smith and the bride was Miss Florence Mabel Haddow, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs Harry Haddow of the Rose and Crown, High Street. The paper reported that Private R Saddler, 1ST Suffolk Regiment was best man in the absence of the bride's brother who was a prisoner of war in Germany.

The CIP issue of the 20 August highlighted an improvement in the situation. Eleven married men and 55 single men of military age in Willingham were now serving. The paper said that it was interesting to note how well the married men had responded to the call to arms.

Of course several villagers made the ultimate sacrifice in the service of their country. The CIP newspaper of 10 September 1915 reported that Mr W Hayden of New Town, Willingham had received a telegram informing him of the death of his eldest son Lance-Corporal Manoah of the Wellington Infantry, New Zealand Expeditionary Force. He had died of wounds and pneumonia on 15 August in the Dardanelles. The sorrowing parents also received the following message:

'The Governor is commanded by the King to assure you of the true sympathy of his Majesty and the Queen in your sorrow – Kitchener'

Lance-Corporal Manoah Hayden had left Willingham two years previously for Australia. From there he had gone to New Zealand and joined the Expeditionary Force which was sent to the Dardanelles. The paper believed that he was the first Willingham man to have been killed in this European War.

Old Willingham

This month we see a Romany Gypsy family taken in their caravan during the 1930s. Or do we? Well, you would be forgiven for thinking so, but an older village member told me that this picture was taken during a village parade. Every year families in the village would compete by dressing up in all sort of outfits and costumes. This family owned a caravan and turned out in style. In past years much effort was put into parades which sometimes raised money for local hospitals.

The Mother

If you should die, think only this of me:
In that still quietness where is space for thought,
Where parting, loss and bloodshed shall not be,
And men may rest themselves and dream of nought;
That in some place a mystic mile away
One whom you loved has drained the bitter cup
Till there is nought to drink; has faced the day
Once more, and now, has raised the standard up.

And think, my son, with eyes grown clear and dry
She lives as though for ever in your sight,
Loving the things you loved, with heart aglow
For country, honour, truth, traditions high,
- Proud that you paid their price. (And if some night
Her heart should break- well, lad, you will not know.)

You may be aware from the media that GP surgeries will suffer annual funding cuts over a period of several years. To protect high quality services for all patients a petition has been launched by the Royal College of General Practitioners and the National Association for Patient Participation. Shingles vaccines I apologise for any confusion regarding eligibility for shingles vaccines on the NHS. The government in its wisdom has decreed that only 70 and 79 year olds born between specific birth dates can receive the vaccine in the current rolling programme. These birth dates are due to change in September. If you were born between 2 September 1942 and 1 September 1943 or 2 September 1933 to 1 September 1934 you will have received an invitation letter from us some months ago. The Bobby Scheme is a local charity which provides a service to older or vulnerable people by improving home security to reduce crime and the fear of crime. The Bobbies fit door chains, window alarms and other security devices and provide advice and reassurance. Visits are free to victims of crime over 60, and they ask for a £25 donation from those over 65 or disabled who ask for a visit. They can be contacted on 01480 413311 or online at www.thebobbyscheme.org.

County & District Council

Our new County Councillor Peter Hudson attended the recent Parish Council meeting and gave a full report including details of a new Mental Health Strategy, the introduction of charges for Park & Ride (but not at Longstanton), and a school pupil video asking parents 'Don't Park Here'. He can be contacted at p-hudson@hotmail.co.uk. District Councillor Ray Manning reported that the Greater Cambridge City Deal had been signed, with further details to follow later in the year, and that a meeting to agree Northstowe planning details had been held.

Northstowe

Councillor Harris had attended a recent meeting of the Northstowe Parish Forum. Currently there is an archaeological investigation in progress, which will be followed in the next 6 months with site clearance and work on new road junctions on the B1050 between the guided bus crossing and the old golf course. Exact timings for this have yet to be worked out. The first 172 houses are planned to be built in 2016.
