Independent Financial & Legal Advice

At our heart is your financial well-being

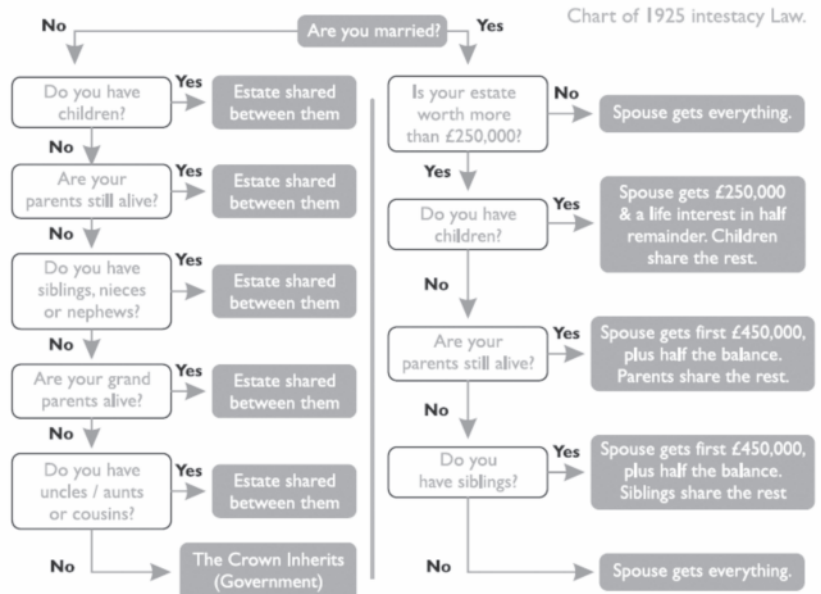

The Last Item on the Agenda?

And No, its not 'Any Other Business'.
It's writing your Will.

Without a Will the law takes over; it decides who gets what; makes the decisions for you and they might not be the decisions you were expecting. Of course, if you are living as an unmarried couple, your survivor will get nothing.

But, there is also the misunderstanding that if you leave behind a spouse and children, everything is straightforward - it's not. The chart opposite explains how it works.

If writing a Will has moved up your agenda, why not give Jenny or Stephen a call on 01954-262120 to discuss how Lee Associates can help, or email info@lee-associates.co.uk.

EDITORIAL

Whereas for Willingham, October has been a happy celebration, November is traditionally when we remember those who fought in wars. This year is particularly important as we think about the beginning of the First World War, 100 years ago in 1914. This poem sent in this month by Christine Lacey is so relevant.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

Lest we forget
All those who went before.
The brave ones, the heroes
The ordinary men.

Lest we forget
What all of it was for
Let us remember them
Again and again.

A Professional Service from Start to Finish

Old Willingham

This is one of the older pictures in the Old Willingham collection – estimated to be about 1900. It shows the large family of Mr Ingle Few Thoday and his wife Emily. These are all well-known Willingham names. Mr Thoday established one of the largest and most successful nurseries on Long Lane (opposite the school) and the family lived in “The Vineyards” – the large house opposite the end of Silver Street. Sadly, two of the boys in the picture were destined to die in the First World War – Eric (child at front left) died in 1917 aged 27 and Redvers, the baby in the picture, died at the age of 18 – tragically he died from wounds a couple of weeks after the war had ended in November 1918.

LOOKING BACK – The White Hart

The White Hart on the High Street was a well-appointed country pub with a delightful restaurant off the bar. Looking Back it was the subject of a review in the Cambridgeshire, Huntingdon and Peterborough Life magazine in September 1977.

At that time it was run by Fergus Gibney and his wife Jill. The impressive 250 year old house was once a one-storey coaching inn. Its attractive interior contained an inglenook fireplace in which a roaring fire burned in the winter and a fine collection of brasses and early farming implements. Much of the furniture had been individually chosen and bought.

The critic, Emily Devereux, reported that the menu was nicely balanced and had a choice of eight starters. The main dishes chosen by her and her companion were Baked Mackerel and Chicken Viennoise. The mackerel was boned and stuffed with chicken, prawns and herbs and served with a creamy pernod sauce. The chicken was dipped in egg and herbs, deep fried and served on a bed of chopped mushrooms, tomatoes, onions and ham. The alternative choice of mains included Coquille St Jacques Cecelia, Scampi Provencal and Sliced Sirloin Simonsuun.

The chef was Mr Larry Squires who had joined the Gibneys earlier that year. He had trained in the kitchens of King's College and had devised the restaurant's speciality, Roast Duckling au Povre.

The critic recommended the White Hart either for a meal or for a drink in the well-furnished bar.

Life Matters

We all want to live life to the full, to grab every opportunity, make a difference, leave a lasting and worthwhile legacy. But somehow things don't always go as planned.

Life Matters is a series of events arranged by Willingham Baptist Church for all local men seeking something more from life.

COMMUNITY ORCHARD AND WOODLAND UPDATE

Thanks to the efforts of the watering teams the orchard trees have come through the summer in good shape and we also have a near 100% survival rate of woodland trees.

About 25 locations on the orchard grid remain to be filled this winter to complete planting, about half of which have already been sponsored. If anyone still wishes to sponsor a tree in celebration or remembrance please make contact. This is the final winter of grant support from the Big Tree Plant as the fund closes in March 2015.

A few more trees will also be planted on the QEII field this winter, so for those who would prefer to sponsor a woodland tree that option remains.

As part of a year on year habitat enhancement of the Community Orchard and Woodland, eight 30msq plots have been prepared and seeded with a wild flower mix with a view to achieving natural spread over the coming years. This is kindly being supported by South Cambridgeshire District Council. It is also planned to plant bulbs.

Thanks to Edward Gilbert of Queenholme Farm, who has assisted with spraying and tractor work, and thanks to everyone else who has been involved in establishing the Community Orchard and Woodland.

We still need all the help we can get, so if anyone wants to get involved or to sponsor a tree please make contact. graham@gwmumby.co.uk

GARDENING TIPS FOR NOVEMBER

Winter is nigh, leaves will have fallen onto lawns and borders – these need to be removed and composted or placed in your green bins. If left where they fall they will provide shelter for slugs and snails.

Cut back the stems of border plants such as achillea, crocosmia, peony and other long stemmed plants to 3 – 6 inches. You can make good use of all the cutback plant material by composting it, so long as it is not diseased. For the time being leave the heads of seed bearing stems for the birds however.

Plant polyanthus, primulas and primroses, they will flower early if the winter is mild and should last several years. These can be divided in subsequent years to provide new more vigorous plants.

Willingham Feast 2014

Each year the few members of Willingham Action Group who run the Feast wonder if it will be all worthwhile. Usually, by Sunday evening and after a hectic week, we realise it was.

There have been many positive comments about all the events from the 'old' such as the photography exhibition, curry quiz and Feast market to the 'new' like the Bush craft session. Then there is the 'very old' and traditional like the Salvation Army Band, the joint Church service and the funfair, symbols of celebration in Willingham for a long time.

The ceilidh, which was omitted last year, was a great success and fantastic fun as the band made some of the dances slightly harder to make sure chaos ensued. The walkers and cyclists went to Holywell instead of Ely and spent a wonderful lunchtime sitting in the sun in the Ferryboat beer garden.

We included the re-opening of the Porterhouse as an event because we think our three pubs play a vital role in village life. The opening became more of a game of how to fit two hundred people in 50 square metres! The new style pub is a great asset to the village and we all wish it success.

All of us should congratulate the twelve teams who took part in the treasure hunt in pouring rain and the guides who demonstrated it is possible to light a fire without matches and toast marshmallows in the same inclement weather.

One of my favourite events was the music at Willingham Jam Club (which takes place at the Social Club in the evening of the last Monday in the month) where for £2 we heard wonderful music from very talented local musicians. Give it a try sometime. My other personal highlight was listening to the children of the Primary School entertaining the seniors at their afternoon tea party.

On a more sombre note we were very blessed with the exhibition of WWI events relating to this area held in the library. It was very moving reading of the sacrifices made and seeing the well-known names of Willingham families listed amongst those lost. The exhibition will be kept and shown again in November.

Finally, we would like to thank all those who helped in some way and are too numerous to mention in detail. It would include the various businesses who supported us and are mentioned in the programme, our 'partners' such as the Jam Club and Willingham School Association and the WAG volunteers who gave of their time to improve the ethos of Willingham.

JAMIE ASPINALL GOLF SOCIETY (JAGS)

On Friday 3 October we held a charity golf day at Brampton Park Golf Club, attended by 28 golfers, in aid of the Over Day Centre's minibus fund. In the evening we went to the Black Bull, Longstanton for a buffet, followed by prize giving and a raffle. In total we raised £600 for the minibus fund. A big thank you for all those who played and donated raffle prizes and contributed to a very enjoyable day. A special thank you to Tony, Andrew and Darren from A R Aspinall and Sons and Universal Fencing for sponsoring the prizes.

Engage in the Afternoon

Come and join in with these special sessions for adults on the first Wednesday of each month from 2 to 3.30 pm. There are speakers, tea/coffee/biscuits and a chance to change books.

In October we welcomed back Warrant Officer Jim Blackwood with colleague, John Clifford from RAF Wyton, to deliver the second part of his talk on the Pathfinder bombing missions of World War 2. It was a fascinating insight into the life of the crews and their great contribution to the war effort.

These talks are free but donations are welcomed towards refreshments.

Future Talks:

- Wednesday 5 November – World War I in Willingham and Over

Following the Friends' very successful exhibition on Feast weekend, Anne Kirkman will be talking about her research into WWI soldiers who came from Willingham and Over.

- Wednesday 3 December – What's in a Name?

Anthony Poulton-Smith, freelance journalist and author, will be speaking about the etymology of names. The talk not only covers the origins of towns and villages but also hills, streams, districts, fields, streets, and even public houses.

Story Time for Under 5s

Now that the weather is turning wintry why not come along to a Story Time? They are on the first and third Tuesdays of the month during term-time. Upcoming dates are 4 and 18 November and 2 December. Parents/Carers must accompany children. Please support this fun and free activity.

World War One Exhibition in the Library

Over the past few months Anne Kirkman has spent many hours going through old newspapers in the Cambridgeshire Collection at the Central Library, and many more on the internet, researching news items relating to Willingham and Over during the First World War, the Suffolk Regiment to which most local men belonged, and individual soldier's stories. Some of the fruits of Anne's labours were on display on the Sunday of Feast Weekend, at an exhibition organised by the Friends of Willingham Library. Also on display were items lent by local residents, including medals, postcards from the Front, letters, photos, 'death plaques' and a couple of the tobacco tins given to each soldier by Princess Mary for Christmas 1914 (best wishes for a Victorious New Year!), one complete with 100 year old cigarettes and tobacco. There were also albums of pictures of local soldiers, and of the staff and patients at the VAD Hospital, which was housed in the old Church Hall (now a private residence).

The exhibition was a great success, with over a hundred visitors over the course of the day. Following the public viewing, four classes from Willingham Primary School were invited to the library as they are studying the war. The children were particularly interested in items that had been loaned and a World War I songbook - the strains of It's a Long Way to Tipperary and Pack up Your Troubles have been reverberating round the school!

We plan to re-erect the display in the Octagon behind the Parish Church on Remembrance Sunday for anyone who missed it, or who would like another look.

Calling volunteers to deliver your village magazine!

New distributors are urgently required for several parts of the village. We particularly need help from anyone living in Green Street, Haden Way or Saxon Way. But we would like to hear from anyone willing to help with door to door deliveries in their area. Please ring Phil King on 01954 260780 or email philking@aol.com

Pause For Thought

'Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.' [John 15:13] When I was volunteering in Ethiopia I understood this from a different perspective.

The love for ones fellow human beings can manifest itself in different ways. Our armed forces show constantly their love for us all as they put themselves in the front line and during the First World War here in Willingham, families lost loved ones because they too loved us all so very much. Other charitable volunteers do so all the time around the world and it is with unbelievable sadness some are not able to fulfil the work they set out to do before they meet their end.

Where I was based in Mekelle near the Eritrean border, was a magnificent monument set on a hill to honour their war dead and it is clearly for men, women and children equally. Usually it is a very quiet place up there; just two sets of huge, simple yet inspiring statues. On one side are the expected fighters and a tank, but on the other are ordinary people with a donkey struggling along, plus a fallen woman with her distressed child. In the centre stands a fairly plain but extraordinarily tall obelisk. I absolutely loved it. Once I went there at dawn for a special war Remembrance Day held for the ordinary people who became martyrs, losing their lives just 30 years ago. Sunrise was fantastic as it shone on the people up at the top; all workers with a pick axe, shovel, crow bar or similar tools. Half were women, since they work manually as well as rear the children, so some were there with their babies on their backs. We all crouched together, chatting in halting phrases before traditional music was played followed by the brass band. The seven massive wreaths laid were palm branches brightened by local flowers, but each needed a few bearers to carry each one up the flights of steps to the top. As each was laid it was accompanied by the Last Post. After a few speeches everyone moved to the side of the hill to dig and plant young trees. For me the whole experience was incredibly moving. Although I was invited for a coffee ceremony at the home of a woman I had just met I didn't go; instead I walked back, thinking all sorts of deep thoughts, through the town bustling with beggars, animals, traders to the office to start my working day. I was totally bowled over by it all and being a part of it all felt such a privilege.

WI News

Our September speaker, Eleanor Clapp, gave a short history and demonstration of Willowcraft. Basket-making is an ancient craft and willow for this was first cultivated by the Romans. Through the Middle Ages up to Victorian times, woven willow was used for making many things including furniture, houses, cages and multifarious containers. It was ideal for transporting food especially delicate items such as fish and fruit. In Covent Garden, the market workers held competitions to see who could carry the most empty fruit baskets on their head, the winner sometimes managing as many as 20! Eleanor wove a beautiful basket while she was talking and then kindly donated it as a raffle prize – it was a really enjoyable evening.

‘Hello!’ from your new Police Sergeant

Please allow me to introduce myself. I am Police Sergeant Mark Rabel based at Histon Station and have responsibility for the Histon Panel area – which embraces your village. I’ve been in post now for about 3 months. I live in this area and have three children – the two youngest attend local schools. What happens in this area also affects me; I have a vested interest in your village!

South Cambridgeshire continues to enjoy a status of being a safe place to live and work. Our biggest crime problem continues to be burglaries with an average of one a day being committed throughout the area. Sounds a lot? Our geographic patch is approximately 350 square miles – it’s a massive area to patrol. Typically a window is smashed with an untidy search of the house before people make off with small valuables. It’s an awful experience for the victim of such a crime with a feeling of violation and the cost of replacing stolen items, repairing windows and changing locks. In the last few weeks we have apprehended and charged eight individuals with burglary – interestingly all but one of these thieves lived outside South Cambridgeshire – suggesting that our area is targeted by criminals. Preventing burglary and catching offenders remains our top local priority.

You can help by keeping vigilant for suspicious activity in your area and calling 999 if you feel something is amiss. Statistically there are very few successful burglaries where there is a working alarm system fitted. If you want advice in relation to the security of your property call your local officer who will be only too happy to help and provide a free security survey.

The summer months are almost gone and we have had relatively little disorder in comparison to the same time last year. We were actively engaged in conducting summertime patrols in the green spaces in your area. Pretty well all events or carnivals have been without major incident.

CRICKET CLUB

Congratulations to Willingham 1st team who had an outstanding season finishing 2nd in Division 4N of the Cambridgeshire cricket leagues achieving promotion for 2015 season.

Congratulations to ‘Lost in Translation’, the team that won the Quiz on 19 September

The Cricket Club is also looking for new players for the 2015 season. If you are 13 years old or above and would like to play cricket, even if you can only play once a month, we would still be interested in hearing from you. For more information please contact Matt Leach on 01954 260336.

Road Closure Earith Road – by the river (sometimes called Shelford Road)

Patching will be carried out on Sunday 2 November and possibly again on Sunday 9 November and letters will be posted nearer the time. There will be advance notification boards put out on site about a week before.

In order to carry out the works the road between the river bridge and the lay-by just north of Bridge Farm will be closed. Traffic will be diverted along the A1123 Earith to St Ives, A14 St Ives to Bar Hill and B1050 Bar Hill to Willingham and vice versa.

Access for residents and businesses within the closure will be maintained but there may be delays in order to ensure safe passage within the works. Thank you in advance for your patience and co-operation.

If you have any queries please contact the call centre on 0345 045 5212.

Private flu vaccinations are available at a cost of £10 for those who are not eligible for free NHS flu vaccination. Please ask in pharmacy.

Flu vaccines for children. The campaign to reduce flu in the community by vaccinating healthy children continues this winter. Children born between 2/9/09 and 1/9/12 inclusive can receive a flu vaccination, given in the form of a nasal spray (not an injection).

The Shingles Vaccination Rolling Programme is also continuing this autumn. There are strict eligibility criteria and the vaccines are available free this year only to the following groups: – patients born between 2/9/34 and 1/9/36 and patients born between 2/9/43 and 1/9/44. Please ring for an appointment.

If you notice blood in your pee, even if it's 'just the once', tell your doctor.

CARERS Our practice is dedicated to helping those who help and provide care for others. Over the last few months we have held four Carers Support Meetings where we have had informal chats with refreshments. Tracey from the Village Benefits Advice Service has attended to help with financial problems, and Leslie from the Carers Trust Cambridgeshire has been very helpful advising carers on the help and support available to them. Our next meetings at Willingham Surgery are on Wednesday 5 November and Wednesday 10 December. All meetings are from 2 – 4 at Willingham surgery. If you are a Carer do come along and join us. For more information phone Karen at the surgery.

Missed appointments in September = 74 nurse appointments and 54 GP appointments.

Please remember to let us know if you no longer need an appointment so that others may benefit. Don't forget that you can book and cancel appointments on line so just ask reception how you can register for this service.

Counselling Sadly we are no longer able to fund a free counselling service from the practice income due to NHS budgets cuts. Julia Hall will continue to provide counselling services from a room at the surgery but these will now be on a negotiated fee basis.

My counselling background and experience

I have been a counsellor and psychodynamic therapist in private practice for over 18 years. I have also worked for the NHS for 16 years in a GP surgery setting. Alongside this work I have been involved with families and parents through a charity called Home-Start providing on-going weekly support and advice. I also work with couples. I am able to offer short term focused sessions and medium term counselling if this is felt to be more appropriate and this would be discussed at the initial meeting.

From the Parish Council

Vacancies

The Parish Council is the level of government closest to the community and is usually the first place people go with ideas or concerns. Although it has limited powers itself, it does have the ability to negotiate and the power to influence those other organisations which do make decisions. As a parish councillor, seeing your community change for the better as a result of decisions you have helped make is something that can give you a real sense of achievement and pride. The council currently has 2 vacancies - if you would like to know more about what is involved then please feel free to contact the clerk, chairman or any of the councillors listed below for an informal chat.

Youth Conversion

This Youth facility construction work at the Ploughman Hall is still ongoing, although there have been some delays and there is not yet a confirmed date for opening. We will keep you informed.

Recreation Ground Flooding

In May 2013 the council examined and repaired the drainage on the Recreation Ground. The pipes by the Lode were dug up for distances of up to 24 metres, cleared of roots and other blockages and sections replaced where necessary. The entire bank of the Lode was levelled and the result was free-flowing water from all 9 drains.

However, the water level of the Lode has now risen well above the drain outflows and is now causing flooding of the Recreation Ground. The council has met representatives of the Environment Agency, who are responsible for maintaining the Lode, but they have said that whilst there is no risk of flooding to the residents of Willingham, there is no justification to dredge the Lode.

The council is not happy with this situation. We will be writing to the Environment Agency stating our total dissatisfaction, and copying our MP, District Council and the Minister. District Councillor Manning has agreed that, once the letter is received, he will take it up with Government.

Bin collection changes

Green bin collections will be moving to a monthly collection during the winter months of December, January and February when far less garden waste is put out by residents. Fortnightly collections will continue for the rest of the year. Christmas collection dates might move forwards or back, stopping on the 28 December and starting again on the 5 January. For more information visit www.scams.gov.uk/content/find-your-bin-collection-day.

Excess blue bin material is routinely collected when placed alongside the bin in a returnable container or plastic box. Excess black bin waste will be collected if placed alongside the bin on the first scheduled collection after the New Year.

All bin collection routes (green, blue and black) are also being adjusted in order to achieve further efficiencies and therefore reduce costs. This might mean your bins are collected either earlier or later in the day - particularly your green bin during the summer months, when there is more garden waste to collect.

Independent Living Fund Closure, June 2015

The Independent Living Fund (ILF) aimed to support long term, independent living for severely disabled people by helping them to live at home instead of in residential care. In March 2014, the Government announced that the ILF will close on 30 June 2015 when the County Council will take over responsibility for meeting the eligible care and support needs of ILF users.

The County Council and ILF are working closely together to make sure the transfer of responsibility for funding arrangements takes place as smoothly as possible. The ILF have written to all their service users to advise them of the transfer of funding to councils from 30 June 2015. The County Council has also written to service users to advise them of the change. The ILF are planning to undertake joint visits with the County Council by June 2015 to give people the opportunity to discuss their care and support needs and independent living outcomes and how these will be managed in the future, and to ask any questions they have about the transfer. In the meantime ILF caseworkers will continue to support people.

The Independent Living Fund website www.dwp.gov.uk/ilf includes a Guide to the programme's closure. You can also phone the County Council's Customer Services on 0345 045 5202 with any questions. The ILF is no longer accepting any new applications.

Adult Support Drop-In Events

A series of events for anyone who is living with a long-term illness or disability, providing unpaid support to adult family members or friends who could not manage without this help, or struggling with an age-related condition, is continuing this Autumn and Winter. Please see page 10 for dates and further information.
